

Stephen A. Goldmeier

stephen.goldmeier@gmail.com
makingarecord.com

WORK EXPERIENCE

Office of the Ohio Public Defender, Columbus, OH

Public Information Attorney, Policy and Outreach Division.

May 2016 - Present

- Business analyst for the development of a state-wide case-management system, designed to connect defenders throughout Ohio and improve indigent defense.
- Managed a work group of attorneys and staff, generating design recommendations and improving user experience in our case management system.
- Analyzed case data and prepared reports to help us best allocate limited resources.
- Wrote policy recommendations and training materials, both internal and external.
- Consulted with public-defense offices around Ohio to improve client services.
- Head of the agency's Jail-Time Credit Working Group, member of the Racial Justice Initiative, and trainer with the Forensic Training Unit.

Office of the Ohio Public Defender, Columbus, OH

Assistant State Public Defender, Appeals and Postconviction Section.

November 2011 - April 2016

- Represented indigent clients in a wide variety of appellate and postconviction proceedings in state and federal court, managing a large and complex caseload.
- Project manager for the development of the agency's website and social media branding, coordinating a team of people from throughout the agency.
- Successfully argued State v. Hand, 2016-Ohio-5504, in the Ohio Supreme Court.

EDUCATION

DePaul University College of Law, Chicago, IL

Juris Doctor, Certificate in Intellectual Property Law.

- Seminar Paper: "The Exceptions Make the Rule: Reasonable Network Management in the FCC's Vision of Net Neutrality."

Otterbein University, Westerville, OH

Bachelor of Science, Chemistry, Physics, and Secondary Education

- Senior Thesis: "Web 2.0: A New Educational Framework."
- Extensive coursework in writing, teaching, data analysis, and data modeling.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- Faculty, NLADA Appellate Defender Training, teaching writing and storytelling.
- Co-Presenter, "A Digital Investigation from Beginning to End."
- Presenter, "Bringing the Scientific Method Into the Courtroom."

AWARDS, ASSOCIATIONS, SKILLS

- 2015 Best Brief Award Winner, Ohio State Bar Association.
- Board Member and Facilitator, Indigent Defense Research Association.
- Legal Observer Team Leader, National Lawyers Guild.
- Volunteer, Homework Help Center, Columbus Metropolitan Library.
- Working knowledge of SQL, CSS, LaTeX, Excel. Eager to learn more.
- Extensive experience blogging and podcasting, independently and for Gawker Media.